INTRODUCING WILDLIGHT A COMMUNITY COMMITTED TO EDUCATION

Wildlight, a new town being developed within the top-rated Nassau County School District, is focused on creating a culture of life-long learning for people of all ages.

Wildlight is an entirely different type of community that includes homes, shopping, restaurants and a brand-new elementary school. It's planned like a small town with plenty of parks, trails and open spaces— all in the middle of a natural playground. At Wildlight, everyone can experience ongoing education, whether it's in a classroom, in surrounding nature or through the experience of community living.

STATE-OF-THE-ART LEARNING

Wildlight students will attend schools within the highly ranked Nassau County Public School System. With a 16:1 student-teacher ratio, a diverse array of sports and extracurricular activities and a dedication to high academic achievement, these schools will have your kids ready to take on the world. Students in grades K-5 will also have first choice to attend the new Wildlight Elementary School located within the community.
